AMENDMENTS TO ABSTRACT

Please replace the Abstract previously submitted with the following new Abstract:

--An apparatus for cleaning diverse types of surface, such as public highways, pavements, squares and so on is disclosed. The apparatus includes a supply container of a cleaning agent, a plurality of spray units coupled to the container, and a pump for feeding the cleaning agent under the pressure to the spray unit. The pressure of the cleaning agent sprayed lies between 300 and 750 bar. The cleaning agent is also heated to a minimum of 115 degrees Celsius prior to use.--
